REMUNERATION POLICY (UNAUDITED)

The Remuneration Policy of Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. (hereinafter also referred as the "Company") is based on the principles applied in the Intesa Sanpaolo Group including:

– alignment with the interests of shareholders, customers and their assets under management, the medium and long term strategies and objectives, under a framework of reference rules aimed at avoiding conflict of interests, and at the proper control of current and future business risks and ensuring an adequate level of liquidity and capitalization;

– consistency with and promotion of sound and effective risk management and discouragement of risk-taking which is inconsistent with the risk profile, rules or instruments of incorporation of the assets managed;

The Remuneration Policy has been prepared on the basis of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's remuneration policies and, for what is not in conflict, not governed or more restrictive, in compliance with European and national regulations governing the asset management industry:

– the Law of 12 July 2013 on alternative investment fund managers (transposing the EU Directive 2011/61/EU - the AIFM Directive), and – the Law of 17 December 2010 relating to undertakings for collective investment (transposing the EU Directive 2014/91/UE - the UCITS V Directive).

Governance Structure

All incentives and reward systems for the Company's personnel are subject to the following types of conditions:

– activation conditions for the Group and the Company, consisting of liquidity, capitalisation and financial parameters;

– financing conditions of the mechanism of bonus funding for the Group and the Company, according to a top-down approach such as to take into account the exceeding of certain liquidity, capitalisation and financial parameters, in the first place at the level of the Group and, therefore, of the Company;

– individual access condition, meaning the level of achievement of the individual performance objectives, subject to the verification of the absence of individual compliance breaches. The individual performance objectives include financial as well as non-financial criteria.

The Board of Directors of the Company establishes and reviews annually the remuneration policy of the Company and ensures consistency with the overall policy of the Company in terms of risk-taking, the strategy and long-term, corporate governance structure and internal control objectives. It involves the Conducting Officers, each for their own responsibilities, in the definition and implementation of the Remuneration Policy.

The Company decided to entrust the Independent Directors Committee with the advisory and consulting functions aimed to support the Board of Directors in all activities relating to remuneration, defined in accordance with the principles set out in the ESMA Guidelines on sound remuneration policies (ESMA 232/2013 and 411/2016). The Committee is entirely composed of independent members. External persons can still participate in the meetings of the Committee in relation to specific items.

The internal process related to the governance of remuneration involves the Human Resources, the Risk Management, the Compliance and the Operations & Finance departments, each under the supervision of the respective Conducting Officer.

The Corporate Control Functions verify, for each area of competence (Risk Management, Compliance, Internal Audit), the alignment of the remuneration practices with the approved policies and the applicable regulations.

The ex-ante annual independent internal review of the remuneration system concluded its design to be appropriate.

Compensation Structure

The compensation of personnel includes:

– Fixed component, defined on the basis of the contractual category, the role held and the extent of responsibilities, reflecting the experience and skills required, as well as the quality of the contribution to corporate results;

– Variable component, linked to employee's performance and aligned with the annual results actually achieved and the risks prudentially assumed.

The criteria for the definition of the Company incentive systems, in application of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's remuneration policy, aimed at ensuring the correlation between remuneration, performance and risks are, among others:

– the measurement of performance from multiple perspectives in order to align the management and employees behaviour to medium and long term strategic drivers, both quantitative (profitability, growth, productivity, cost of risk / sustainability) and qualitative (strategic actions or projects and managerial quality), on different perimeters (Group / Structure / Individual);

– the principle of selectivity, by differentiating the best performances and assigning higher bonuses;

– the principle of financial sustainability, by the definition of a bonus pool correlated to the performance of a Group parameter, currently identified as Income before tax from continuing operations and the use of a solidarity mechanism, according to which the amount of total bonuses paid to the employees of each Business Unit depends in part on the Group's overall performance (reflected in the size of the bonus pool) and in part on the degree of expected contribution to the Group's results;

– the definition of target bonus for roles and professional clusters to be used across all Group, in order to guarantee internal balance and the ongoing benchmarking between roles and/or professional clusters Group target bonuses and external market practices;

– the verification of the so-called individual compliance breaches as a restriction to bonus accrual (disciplinary measures, serious findings received from the Bank's control functions, sanctions by the Supervisory Authorities).

Vesting of the variable remuneration for Risk Takers is governed by specific rules in terms of:

– Deferral mechanisms;

– Payment partly in cash and partly in instruments and retention period for units/shares of funds;

– Ex-post adjustment mechanisms - malus or clawback.

Compensation for 2025

In accordance with the Law as of 17 December 2010 on Undertakings for Collective Investments (as subsequently amended) in conjunction with the guidelines on sound remuneration policies under UCITS published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA), Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. – Luxembourg Branch has identified individuals who have a material impact of its risk profile (Material Risk Takers).

The regulations provide rules in relation to the variable component of the compensation of Risk Takers, indicating that:

– at least 40% of the variable component (60% for significant bonuses) must be subject to deferred payment for a period of 3 years (5 years for significant bonuses);

– a substantial portion (at least 50%) is paid out in units / shares of funds managed by the Branch, or equivalent instruments; said percentage is applied, in the same proportion, to both the deferred and upfront portions of the variable component;

– there is a specific holding period (of no less than 2 years for the upfront component, and shorter for the deferred portion) for the vesting of the financial instruments referenced above.

In case the Variable Compensation is lower than EUR 80 000, the Material Risk Takers receive their entire Variable Compensation in cash without any deferral.

The following aggregate compensation has been paid by the Branch to its Material Risk Takers and Other Staff in 2025 (in EUR) in relation to all its activities:

Number of employees on an annual average: 80,9
Total Compensation: 12 037 319
Fixed Pay: 9 766 654
Variable Compensation: 2 270 665
Total Compensation for Material Risk Takers (including Senior Management): 3 070 290
Total Compensation for Other staff: 8 967 029

In addition to the compensation paid by the Branch to its Material Risk Takers and Other Staff, as reported above, the aggregate remuneration paid to its own staff by the Investment Managers delegated by the Branch to manage the Sub-Funds of the Fund, including Sub-Funds managed by the Branch Head Office, has been estimated at EUR 12 483 800,06 based on the latest available annual accounts of those companies.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMPANY OF THE FUND

Dear Investors,

Please find below the report of the Directors of the Management Company on the activities of the Fund for the financial year ended on 31 December 2025.

1. Market overview

In the reference period (1 January 2025 – 31 December 2025), trade-related issues and the economic measures introduced by the US administration represented the most significant factors affecting financial markets. Within this context, investors also paid close attention to fiscal matters, particularly the new expansionary measures introduced in the United States and Europe.

More specifically, in the first quarter of 2025 the Trump administration announced a series of tariffs that were subsequently removed or postponed, indicating 2 April as the date for defining the scope and implementation details of the new US trade policy. Rather than in substantive terms, the issue of tariffs affected business and consumer expectations and confidence, casting doubt on future investments. This was followed by China's announcement of a new, lower-cost artificial intelligence (AI) tool, which provided renewed momentum to the Chinese technology sector while simultaneously calling into question the elevated valuations of US technology companies, which until then had held a near-monopoly position in the AI space. In the US, first-quarter macroeconomic data remained robust, with a stable labor market and inflation resuming its downward trend. However, these macroeconomic data played a marginal role compared with the volatility triggered by the announcements and decisions of the new US administration regarding trade tariffs. The situation was different in China and Europe, where significant fiscal expansion plans were announced, primarily to counter the Trump administration's tariff policies. The European Union announced a plan to fund a common defense, while in Germany the new governing coalition unveiled a significant fiscal plan for defense and infrastructure and, most notably, abolished the constitutional debt ceiling. In China, stimulus measures continued to boost consumption, with the primary aim of mitigating the potential negative effects of the new US tariffs. On the monetary policy front, the US Federal Reserve (the "Fed") maintained its pause on interest rate adjustments, postponing any potential cuts to the following months. In the Eurozone, the European Central Bank ("the "ECB") implemented two rate cuts, while signaling a willingness to slow the pace in the months ahead. In terms of geopolitical developments, US-led peace talks aimed at resolving the conflict between Russia and Ukraine contributed to a decline in oil prices.

The second quarter of the year opened with a spike in financial market volatility, driven by the introduction of a series of very high US trade tariffs by the Trump administration. Subsequently, volatility began to ease, until it completely returned to previous levels when the US president suspended most of the tariffs introduced on "Liberation Day" and began a series of bilateral negotiations with the countries involved. Negotiations with several countries did not immediately yield a final agreement, but the market responded positively to the more constructive approach of the US administration. Over the course of the quarter, the focus shifted from trade negotiations to fiscal expansion measures in the US and Europe. In the US, the volatility triggered by Trump's approach to public finances gradually subsided as the new budget bill was reviewed by both chambers ahead of its final approval. In Europe, the announced German fiscal expansion plan was submitted to Parliament, while the NATO countries' proposed increase in military spending resulted in a preliminary agreement to raise defense expenditure to 5% of GDP. In June, the Israeli and US strike on Iranian nuclear sites triggered a new phase of temporary volatility, resulting in a rise in oil prices. The price subsequently fell once the crisis developments ruled out any impact on oil infrastructure. By the end of the quarter, in fact, oil had returned to around 66 dollars per barrel. Macroeconomic data showed declining inflation in both the US and the Eurozone, along with solid resilience in growth, both in the US, which is highly exposed to trade tariff issues, and in Europe. Business and consumer confidence was tested by uncertainty over tariffs but remained strong, as did the US labour market, which continued to avert the prospect of a sharp slowdown. In this context, the Fed maintained its pause on interest rate adjustments, while the ECB implemented two further rate cuts.

In the third quarter of 2025, the conclusion of bilateral agreements between the US and its main trading partners contributed to a substantial reduction in market volatility. In the US, the formal approval of the new fiscal expansion plan bolstered expectations regarding the resilience of the macroeconomic framework, which was further supported by strong corporate earnings, particularly in the technology sector. Expectations regarding the resilience of the US economy were unaffected by the slight slowdown in the labour market observed between August and September, nor by the downward revision of data for the preceding months. The Fed's swift response, resuming interest rate cuts, was sufficient to reassure investors about the resilience of the economic cycle. Indeed, at its September meeting the Fed implemented a 25-basis-point cut, and projected two further cuts by the end of the year, contingent, however, on the evolution of the macroeconomic outlook. The US labour market appeared fairly volatile and contrasted with the solid performance of other economic indicators. Inflation, on the other hand, stabilised at around 3% year on year, with no signs of the feared upward pressures linked to the introduction of tariffs. In Europe, the ECB paused its rate cuts in light of a resilient macroeconomic outlook. In the background, political uncertainties in France persisted, alongside expectations for the implementation of the announced German fiscal expansion plan. Over the quarter, China strengthened its macroeconomic policy framework; nevertheless, growing expectations of additional expansionary measures emerged to support the achievement of the 5% annual growth target.

In the fourth quarter of 2025, the US continued to consolidate trade agreements with its trading partners. Trade relations between the US and China entered a renewed phase of temporary volatility, which subsided once a further truce was reached, paving the way for a final agreement. In the US, the political standoff between Democrats and Republicans led to a government shutdown, resulting in the suspension of non-essential government activities. The shutdown was surprising due to its duration, as it became the longest in history at 43 days, but it did not have a significant impact on the US economy, apart from macroeconomic data being released with considerable delays. This partly heightened investors' uncertainty about the actual health of the US economy. However, uncertainty gradually eased with the release of data showing a solid growth outlook, marked by a continued path of declining inflation without the feared new price pressures from trade tariffs, and a labour market that, while remaining positive overall, showed a slight weakening compared with previous years. The application of artificial intelligence across different sectors of the economy is, in fact, reshaping the composition of the US employment landscape. The weakening of the labour market prompted a response from the Fed, which in the final quarter of the year implemented two further interest rate cuts to support the economy. In Europe, the prospect of implementing Germany's fiscal expansion plan, together with expectations surrounding developments in the peace negotiations between Russia and Ukraine, provided support. The political difficulties in France in approving the budget law did not have spillover effects on other countries. Among these, it is worth highlighting the consolidation of Italy's public finances, which was also rewarded by the rating agencies. The ECB confirmed a pause in its policy stance, while remaining ready to support the economy in the event of a deterioration in the macroeconomic outlook. China, grappling with new trade prospects in light of reduced exports to the US due to tariffs, focused its efforts on boosting domestic consumption.

Analysing financial market trends in the first part of the year, within a context marked by prevailing uncertainty over the economic and trade policy choices of the new US administration, US interest rates showed a fairly uniform downward trend. In the days following "Liberation Day", US interest rates began to rise, particularly at the longer end of the curve, signaling greater investor caution regarding the role of Treasuries as a safe haven (that is, an asset that tends to retain its value during periods of severe market stress). Selling pressure on US government bonds eased in the second half of April, but in May long-term yields resumed their upward movement, driven in particular by Moody's downgrade of the US sovereign rating and by growing concerns over the country's fiscal sustainability. Subsequently, tensions in the US government bond market eased somewhat, with yields initially moving sideways and then, particularly in August, entering a more pronounced downward phase. This movement was supported by rising expectations of a Fed rate cut, following the first signs of weakening in the labour market. Later in the year, yields generally moved sideways, showing no clear directional trend. In the Euro area, during the first part of 2025, interest rates rose, predominantly at the longer end of the curve, and were supported by announcements of fiscal expansion plans. Since March, faced with escalating trade tensions, rates have halted their rise and moved lower. In the following months, however, rates generally exhibited an upward trend, albeit interrupted by brief periods of decline, which occurred mainly during times of heightened trade tensions.

More specifically, the US 2-year interest rate fell from 4.24% to 3.47%, while the 10-year rate declined from 4.57% to 4.17%. In Europe, by contrast, the German 2-year rate remained largely stable, showing a marginal change from 2.08% to 2.12%, while the 10-year rate rose from 2.37% to 2.86%. Among the peripheral countries of the Euro area, the spread between the Italian 10-year bond and the German benchmark fell from 115 basis points to 70.
Within this context, the global bond market (JPM Global index) delivered a positive performance of 2.7% in local currency, while in euros it recorded a negative change of 6.0%. Concerning individual geographical areas, the Eurozone closed the reference period with the JPM EMU index slightly up 0.7% and the United States (JPM USA index) recorded a gain of 6.2% in local currency and a decline of 6.3% in euro terms. Emerging markets (JPM EMBI+ index) posted a positive change of 12.4% in local currency, while in euros they showed a loss of 0.9%.

Turning to equity markets, the reference period saw a significant shift in dynamics. After roughly two years of almost linear gains, markets experienced intense volatility, largely attributable to the potential negative impact of the US administration's policy choices on economic activity. In the early part of 2025, in addition to trade tensions, the US technology sector experienced periods of weakness, weighed down by the announcement of a new Chinese artificial intelligence tool. Within this context, European and emerging markets (notably China) displayed less volatile performance compared with the US, thanks to the expansionary measures implemented to counter the US administration's trade policies. At the beginning of April, following the announcements of tariffs on various countries during "Liberation Day," equity prices plunged, followed by a recovery phase, prompted by Trump's partial backtracking and some signals of "de-escalation" towards various trading partners. Later in the year, with Trump adopting a more negotiating approach on tariffs, leading to the conclusion of trade agreements between the US and some strategic partners, the upward trend continued. This was also supported by new fiscal expansion plans, the Fed's shift to a more accommodative stance, and, more broadly, by themes related to the development of artificial intelligence, although in the latter part of the reference period some doubts resurfaced regarding the sustainability and profitability of the substantial investments made to date.
More specifically, the global equity market posted a positive performance of 18.4% in local currency (MSCI World index) and 6.8% in euros. At the level of individual regions, the US equity market (MSCI US index) ended the period up 17.3% (3.4% in euros), while European markets (MSCI EMU index) recorded a gain of 23.8%. As for emerging markets, the region as a whole (MSCI Emerging Markets index) posted a gain of 31.3% in local currency and 17.8% in euros.

Regarding the foreign exchange market, the euro appreciated by 13.4% against the US dollar, 13.1% against the yen, and 5.6% against the pound, while it depreciated by 0.8% against the Swiss franc.

2. Activity of the Fund

Eurizon Fund is an Undertaking for Collective Investment governed by the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. The Fund is organised under Part I of the Luxembourg law of 17 December 2010 on undertakings for collective investment, as amended (the "Law of 17 December 2010"), in the form of an open-ended mutual investment fund ("fonds commun de placement"), as an unincorporated co- ownership of transferable securities and other assets permitted by law. The Fund may therefore be offered for sale in European Union Member States, subject to notification in countries other than the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. In addition, applications to register the Fund and its Sub-Funds may be made in other countries.

As at 31 December 2025, the Fund had 83 Sub-Funds. All of the Sub-Funds and Unit Classes are registered for offer and distribution in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and a number of the Sub-Funds and Unit Classes are registered in the following jurisdictions: Albania, Austria, Switzerland, Chile (Pension funds), Cyprus, Germany, Denmark, Spain, Finland, France, Greece, Croatia, Hungary, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Sweden, Singapore (restricted scheme), Slovenia, Slovakia and Taiwan.

Products' performance

The performance of the products in 2025 reflects the dynamics of the financial markets over the period (performances shown hereinafter refer only to non-hedged institutional unit classes denominated in Euro, with a full year track record).

In line with above-illustrated markets dynamics, 2025 proved to be a good year for the range of Eurizon Fund's equity Sub-Funds, with most Sub-Funds reporting positive returns over the financial year. With a performance of +34.93%, Eurizon Fund - Equity Italy Smart Volatility Z was the best performer of the year, followed by Eurizon Fund - Italian Equity Opportunities Z (+33.61%) and Eurizon Fund - Equity Emerging Markets New Frontiers Z (+28.13%). Among thematic products, Eurizon Fund - Equity Innovation Z achieved a performance of +7.92% while, at the lower end of the range, Eurizon Fund - Equity Circular Economy Z recorded a negative performance of -0.37%.

Among Bond products, products specializing in European high yield securities stand out with the best performances over the year (Eurizon Fund - Bond High Yield Z: +6.28%, Eurizon Fund - Bond Euro High Yield Z: +5.72%), followed by Sub-Funds investing in emerging markets bonds denominated in domestic currencies (Eurizon Fund - Bond Emerging Markets in Local Currencies Z: +5.51%, Eurizon Fund - SLJ Local Emerging Markets Debt Z: +5.08%). Conversely, products specializing in bonds denominated in Japanese Yen (Eurizon Fund - Bond JPY LTE Z: -17.10%) or US Dollars (Eurizon Fund - Bond USD LTE Z: -6.73% and Eurizon Fund - Bond USD Short Term LTE Z: -7.61%) are those that most suffered in 2025 in terms of performance.

Euro-denominated money market products delivered positive yield in 2025 (+2.05% for Eurizon Fund - Money Market EUR T1 Z, +2.09% for Eurizon Fund - Cash EUR Z).

Absolute and total return products produced performance ranging from +10.29% (Eurizon Fund - SLJ Flexible Global Macro Z) to -2.03% (Eurizon Fund - Flexible US Strategy Z).

Distribution activity

Eurizon Fund reports net assets of EUR 65.4 billion as at 31 December 2025 (EUR 71.8 billion as at 31 December 2024, -8.9%). This drop in assets is mainly the consequence of the merger of 14 Eurizon Fund's Sub-Funds into YourIndex SICAV over the period for a countervalue of EUR 8.0 billion and, to a lesser extent, of overall negative sales (EUR -0.9 billion).
Balanced products (EUR +1.0 billion) and Money Markets products (EUR +0.4 billion) are the asset classes that attracted net inflows over the period while overall outflows are observed from Bond products (EUR -0.9 billion), Flexible products (EUR -0.9 billion) and Equity products (EUR -0.5 billion).

The best seller Sub-Fund of the year with net inflows is Eurizon Fund - Bond Italy Floating Rate LTE (EUR +1.4 billion), followed by Eurizon Fund - Global Allocation (EUR + 0.9 billion) and Eurizon Fund - Top European Research (EUR +0.6 billion). The largest net outflows hit Eurizon Fund - Bond EUR Long Term LTE (EUR -0.8 billion), Eurizon Fund - Bond EUR Short Term LTE (EUR -0.6 billion) and Eurizon Fund - Bond Flexible (EUR -0.5 billion).

3. Relationship with Group Companies

It should be noted that the relationships maintained and transactions carried out during the reporting period with other Group companies are described in the notes to the financial statements, to which reference should be made. These relationships and transactions were regulated on the basis of normal market conditions.

4. Reorganisation of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's asset management activities in Luxembourg

In the context of the project of reorganisation of the asset management activities of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group in Luxembourg, Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. merged with and absorbed Eurizon Capital S.A. on 1 December 2025 (the "Merger Date"), and according to the related merger project, from the Merger Date, Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. acts in Luxembourg through its newly opened branch, Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. - Luxembourg Branch, in which all the previously existing human resources, operational and technical structures of Eurizon Capital S.A. were contributed.

The prospectus of the Fund - including the SFDR Pre-contractual disclosure attached thereto – have been updated to provide further details about the rules applied to investments in corporate issuers with the lowest ESG rating level when an escalation process (so-called "engagement") has been activated by the Management Company and is ongoing.

7. Significant events subsequent to the closing of this report

Significant events subsequent to the closing of this management report are described in the note to the financial statements “Subsequent Events”, to which reference should be made.

8. Exercise of voting rights at shareholders’ meetings of listed companies

Exercise of voting rights and engagement activities

The Management Company has a fiduciary commitment to the protection and creation of value for its Clients and Investors, which requires it to address effectively the issues relating to the performance of the companies in which it invests on behalf of the managed assets.

The Management Company attaches importance to monitoring corporate governance issues (known as “external corporate governance”) of the issuers in which it holds investments; to this end, it has adopted an Engagement Policy consistent with the “Italian Stewardship Principles” and the related best practice recommendations defined by Assogestioni for the exercise of administrative and voting rights in listed companies.

Since 2015, as a signatory to the United Nations “Principles for Responsible Investment” (UN PRI), the Management Company has paid particular attention to the policies implemented by the issuers in which it invests, in the belief that sound corporate governance policies and practices (which incorporate environmental, social and governance matters) are capable of creating long-term value for shareholders.

In this context, the specialized research used by the Management Company to support investment decisions and the exercise of participation and voting rights also includes information on the social and environmental responsibility of issuers, aimed at identifying any reputational, competitive and business opportunity impacts arising from corporate governance choices.

In accordance with the applicable regulations, the Management Company has adopted its own “Strategy to exercise participation and voting rights inherent to the financial instruments pertaining to the managed assets of Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A.”, which defines the procedures and measures adopted to:

- monitor corporate events relating to the financial instruments held in the managed portfolios, where required by the characteristics of the financial instruments incorporating the rights to be exercised;
- assess the methods and timing for any exercise of participation and voting rights, on the basis of a cost/benefit analysis that also takes into account the objectives and investment policy of each managed portfolio;
- prevent or manage any potential conflicts of interest that may arise from the exercise of voting rights on behalf of the managed assets.

Participation in shareholders’ meetings is governed by a specific internal operating procedure that regulates the manner of participation in the interests of the managed portfolios and market integrity, with the aim of minimizing the risk of conflicts of interest. To this end, the Management Company has put in place appropriate safeguards designed to identify circumstances that generate, or could generate, conflicts of interest and that could therefore seriously prejudice the interests of one or more Clients/Investors/UCITS. The Management Company participates, on behalf of the managed assets, in the shareholders’ meetings of selected companies with shares listed on Borsa Italiana and on international markets, taking into account both the usefulness of participation in relation to the interests of the managed assets and the ability to influence decisions in light of the voting rights held.

Based on a cost-benefit analysis that also takes into account the objectives and investment policies of the products managed, the Management Company has defined the following quantitative and qualitative criteria for identifying the most relevant shareholders' meetings:

- ownership of significant shareholdings as identified from time to time in the relevant internal procedures;
- presence of situations in respect of which, in the interests of the assets under management, it is intended to (i) drawing attention to matters of particular significance, in defense of or in support of the interests of minority shareholders, or (ii) supporting significant decisions relating to environmental, social and sound corporate governance practices;
- appointment of statutory auditors or members of the boards of directors of companies listed in Italy through the list voting mechanism, representing minority shareholders;
- resolution on extraordinary transactions deemed significant for the interests of the managed assets are resolved, in order to support or oppose the proposed transaction.

Where one or more of these criteria are met, the Responsible Investments & Stewardship function defines proposals relating to voting instructions on the basis of (i) analyses and in-depth reviews of public documents, (ii) available research supporting corporate governance decisions and voting recommendations, (iii) input provided by the relevant portfolio managers, and (iv) the outcomes of any interaction with the issuing company ("engagement"). Participation in individual shareholders' meetings is authorised by the Chief Executive Officer of the Management Company, who also determines (i) the vote to be cast, (ii) any specific requests to be made in the interests of investors, independently of any internal or external influence on the Company, and (iii) the methods of participation, including proxy voting, at individual shareholders' meetings, to be entrusted to specialised third-party companies with explicit instructions. Where this is deemed the most efficient method in the interests of the managed assets and where the above quantitative and qualitative criteria are not met, the Management Company may also exercise voting rights through any electronic voting process made available by issuers. To this end, the Management Company uses an IT platform that streamlines the exercise of voting rights, particularly in relation to foreign issuers. In such cases, voting instructions are defined on the basis of specific guidelines approved by the Board of Directors following a proposal by the Chief Executive Officer and General Manager.

Eurizon Capital also undertakes to carry out in-depth research and to establish constructive dialogue with the management and/or control bodies of "relevant issuers", identified on the basis of specific selection criteria defined in "Engagement Policy of Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A.", which is public and available on its website.

The Management Company promotes proactive interaction with the companies in which it invests, encouraging effective communication with the management of such issuers, using one of the following engagement approaches:
- "unilateral", where the Management Company initiates the communication ("one-way");
- "bilateral", where the Management Company and the investee issuer have established a constructive dialogue ("two way");
- "collective", where coordinated action by multiple institutional investors on targeted issues is envisaged, including through participation in the activities of the Corporate Governance Committee and the Asset Managers' Committee promoted by Assogestioni, together with other institutional investors that are signatories to the UN PRI, or within the framework of other relevant international forums.

Documents relating to Management Company stewardship activities are available on its website https://www.eurizoncapital.com/en/sustainability/stewardship-policy

Sustainability

The Management Company has adopted a Sustainability Policy describing the methodologies for the selection and monitoring of financial instruments in order to take sustainability aspects into account in its investment process in relation to collective asset management services, portfolio management services and the recommendations provided as part of the investment advisory service.

In line with the United Nations "Principles for Responsible Investment" (PRI) and with the European regulatory and legislative framework, the Management Company has adopted methodologies that provide for the application of specific financial instrument selection processes, appropriately calibrated according to the characteristics and objectives of the individual managed products, which take into account environmental, social and governance factors ("Environmental, Social and Governance factors" - ESG) and Sustainable and Responsible Investment principles ("Sustainable and Responsible Investments" - SRI). Issuer selection and monitoring criteria based on ESG and SRI profiles complement the traditional financial analyses of issuers' risk/return profiles that Management Company considers when making its investment decisions, with the aim of (i) preventing environmental, social and governance conditions from having a significant actual or potential negative impact on the value of the investments of the managed assets, and (ii) identifying issuers' ability to benefit from sustainable growth opportunities.

In accordance with the applicable regulations, the Management Company makes available to its clients/investors and other stakeholders the Summary of the Sustainability Policy, as well as any relevant updates thereto, on its website https://www.eurizoncapital.com/en/sustainability/sustainability-policy

9. Information on SFDR and taxonomy

Pursuant to Article 11(2) of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 (the "SFDR Regulation") and the related implementing regulations, the information on environmental and/or social characteristics related to each Sub-Funds categorized article 8 or 9 under SFDR are available in the Periodic Disclosure attached to this Annual Report.
For the rest of the Sub-Funds, the Management Company integrates sustainability risk analysis into its investment process pursuant to Article 6 of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of November 27, 2019 (the "SFDR Regulation") on sustainability reporting in the financial services industry.
Without prejudice to the integration of sustainability risk analysis into the investment process, the Sub-Funds do not, however, promote the specific environmental objectives identified in Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of June 18, 2020 (the "Taxonomy Regulation") on the establishment of a framework to encourage sustainable investment and amending Regulation (EU) 2019/2088. In this context, it should be noted that the investments underlying this Fund do not take into account the European Union's criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

10. Distribution policy

The dividend decisions taken by the Board of Directors during the financial year, are listed in the note to the financial statement "Dividend distributions". All dividends declared were paid out of net income.

Independent auditor's report

To the Unitholders of Eurizon Fund
c/o Eurizon Capital SGR S.p.A. - Luxembourg Branch
28, Boulevard de Kockelscheuer

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Eurizon Fund (the "Fund") and of each of its sub-funds, which comprise the statement of net assets, the portfolio, the future contracts, the option contracts, the forward foreign exchange contracts and the swap contracts as at 31 December 2025, and the statement of changes in net assets for the year then ended, and the notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Fund and of each of its sub-funds as at 31 December 2025, and of the results of their operations and changes in their net assets for the year then ended in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (the "Law of 23 July 2016") and with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs") as adopted for Luxembourg by the "Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier" ("CSSF"). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the "responsibilities of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements" section of our report. We are also independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants ("IESBA Code") as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the management company of the Fund (the "Board of Directors") is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Comparative Net Asset Values over the last three years, the Total Expense Ratio, the Performance, the Securities Financing Transactions Regulation and the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) but does not include the financial statements and our report of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" thereon.

A member firm of Ernst & Young Global Limited

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors for the financial statements

The Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Fund or any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a report of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.

A member firm of Ernst & Young Global Limited

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé". However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate to them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.
